

the oriental

"If only all hotels could be like this." Conde Nast Traveler USA.

Historically, distinguished travellers have followed the Chao Phraya River to one of the world's most luxurious hotels: the Oriental. Sumptuous accommodation, outstanding restaurants and bars and a fabulous spa have made it a must for those seeking nostalgia.

seven

Tucked down a tranquil cul-de-sac are Seven's six stylishly themed couture rooms. Modern though undeniably Thai, each bijou living space is designed around a specific colour and characterised by intricately detailed Asian wall graffiti, supremely cosy beds and every mod con. With its Serenity Terrace, 7th Heaven Bar and mezzanine cushion-strewn patio, this townhouse-turned-B&B offers great value for the privileged few.
