

Seven

Oftentimes with minimalism there is no room for a sense of place (or a large suitcase, but that's another matter). Rather than blotting out the local landscape, this sleek boutique has ingeniously embraced its Thai character with a unique concept: its six guest rooms (and lobby makes seven) are decorated in the colour that Thais associate with each day of the week. The pink room is Tuesday, the blue room is Friday and so on.
